

ADVANCING EMERGENCY CARE

November 4, 2023

Ziad Faramand, MD, MSc
NE Georgia Medical Center
Dept. of Emergency Medicine
2214 Everly Way
Gainesville, GA 30501

Dear Dr. Faramand:

It is my honor to inform you that you have been selected as this year's recipient of the

Georgia College of Emergency Physicians
In-Training Professionalism and Service Award

The GCEP ED In-Training Professionalism and Service Award is presented to a Resident or Fellow who demonstrates outstanding patient care in a professional and compassionate manner, and who has provided significant service to the Chapter or their community.

Ziad, it is without a doubt that your outstanding work at Northeast Georgia Medical Center deserves our recognition. It will be my honor to present this award to you during the Georgia Emergency Medicine Leadership & Advocacy Conference (GEMLAC) at the Ritz Carlton Lake Oconee. The meeting will take place Thursday and Friday, November 30th and December 1st, 2023 and the award will be presented on the afternoon of Thursday, November 30th, just prior to our reception. Please feel free to invite anyone of significance to watch you receive your award.

We are happy to secure and pay for a hotel room for the night of Thursday, November 30th so please let us know if you would like us to do so. We also hope you will be able to join us for the entire conference. You can register at www.gcep.org and we can extend your stay to include Wednesday night (Wednesday night would be at your own expense).

If you are unable to attend the presentation, please let us know.

Kindest regards,

Brett Cannon, MD, FACEP
President, Georgia College of Emergency Physicians
